

Itacaré 5DAYS / 4NIGHTS

Duration: Guests arriving in Brazil in DAY 1 and departing in the DAY 5 visiting Itacaré and its surrounding region in the south of the Bahia state, one of the main ecotourism destinations of Brazil.

Guest and Package Profile: Itacaré is a small and cozy village in the state of Bahia. Throughout the past years it has become a “cool” destination for youngsters, couples and adventurers. A lot of foreigners live in the town. This package is a great option for people interested in getting close to nature and visiting new landscapes by the Brazilian northeastern coast. There’s a good balance of moderate physical activity and leisure moments passing through marvelous natural places along the itinerary. Passengers will be able to visit great waterfalls, rivers, the Mata Atlântica Rainforest and also have contact with all kinds of local folklore and the interesting native people. There’s also a very famous and professional SURF SCHOOL at Itacaré.

When to go: All the year round. December to February are the hottest months and also the high season. July is also considered high season in some hotels / lodges. The rainy season is from end of May to August.
